Gospel Reflections - John 6:24-35 In today's Gospel, Jesus does what he often did as he taught people. He moves them to ever deeper levels of understanding. They had eaten the loaves that Jesus had miraculously multiplied. Now Jesus invites them to consider the "food which endures to eternal life." Finally, Jesus tells them, "I am the bread of life." This bread, then, is the bread they need in order to be able to "work the works of God." We can move to deeper understanding with Jesus too. Consider the food we eat and how, ultimately, every morsel is a gift from God. As food nourishes our bodies for our life and work, so the Bread of Life strengthens us to do God's work.

Parish Auction: I know that some have been wondering whether or not St Boniface will have the auction this year. In consultation with the Finance Council, it has been decided not to hold the Parish Auction for St Boniface this year. Some of the reasons for this decision are as follows:

- 1) Hope that those who support the auction both with donations and by purchasing items will allocate what they would give to support the auction toward Sunday/Holy Day giving and/or other avenues of donating such as commodities, stocks, and IRA, Estate, or Social Security transfers all of which can have tax benefits.
- 2) St Boniface currently has enough money in savings/CDs to cover minor operating deficits if they continue and are not reversed in the immediate years.
- 3) The introduction in early 2019 of a new parish mission with the opportunity to support it, and
- 4) The uncertain availability of an auctioneer.

The above four reasons are why it was decided for St Boniface not to have the parish auction this year. I hope that you will understand and I plan to give a report of the parish finances along with an explanation of different ways one can support the parish in September/October 2018. Please direct any questions or comments to me and thank you for your generous support of the auction in years past. ~ ~ Fr Weeder

A WALK ON WATER

A priest, an evangelist, and a minister were in a row boat in the middle of a pond fishing. None of them had caught anything all morning. Then the evangelist stands up and says he needs to go to the bathroom so he climbs out of the boat and walks on the water to shore. He comes back ten minutes later the same way. Then the minister decides he needs to go to the bathroom, too, so he climbs out of the boat and walks on the water to shore. He, too, comes back the same way ten minutes later. The priest looks at both of them and decides that his faith is just as strong as his fishing buddies and that he can walk on water, too. He stands up and excuses himself. As he steps out, he makes a big splash down into the water. The evangelist looks at the minister and says, "I suppose we should have told him where the rocks were."
