**Gospel Reflection:

... he was hungry. The devil said to him ... Luke 4: 2-3

On a retreat for young people I helped direct, the youth reflected on self-care. They knew loving your neighbor and loving yourself go together and are part of loving God. We asked them what they need to look after themselves and each other. They noted, wisely, that when they are hungry or thirsty, they’re vulnerable, and then it’s harder to be good to others.

Yet the Church asks us, entering Lent, to embrace (in some fashion) hunger and thirst through fasting. It asks us to become vulnerable. Jesus spent 40 days in the desert, in physical and spiritual hunger and real temptation. So will we, even if not literally in the desert.

Whichever form of fasting and vulnerability we take up this Lent, let’s do it out of love. We need God’s protection when we enter the Lenten desert. The Church doesn’t ask us to go alone (as Jesus did). It urges us to go together. This is where Jesus is—with us.

Be with us, Lord, in our vulnerability.
